  - Things to Discuss
    - Should students be allowed to hold multiple leadership positions?
- Removing inactive sub-organizations
- Merging concentration committees into micro and macro track
  - CORG & POPR combined to Macro?
  - Should there be a broad topic where leaders can change their focus year to year based on their passion/what they want to get done?

- GSO Budget
  - Beneficiaries of GSO activities
    - Although faculty, staff, ND students, and community members can participate in GSO events, students MUST be the main target for all GSO events
  - Sub-Organizations and Concentration Committees can collaborate for events and split costs for events collaborating accordingly
  - Funds do not roll over from year to year for each group
  - Funds cannot be donated from one organization/concentration to another
  - Cannot fundraise to raise funds as we are operating under state laws
  - Cannot donate money from funds as we are operating under state laws
  - Must be sure to follow all UConn Student Activity procedures
    - Importance of submitting materials for events (i.e. attendance sheets, receipts, etc.)
    - GSO can be audited

- Next Steps
  - Change of By-Laws
  - How can attendance be increased at GSO events?
    - Sub-Organizations and Concentration Committees come together to coordinate dates of events
      - Allotted amount of events each month
      - Decide together which orgs/committees will use allotted time
      - Will allow to one org/concentration committee to be highlighted at a time
  - More Self-Care events needed

- Leadership training for all interested students – planned to schedule for August
- Meet & Greet Event – will take place after convocation at spotlight theater
  - GSO Co-Chairs are needed to organize this
