V. Updates
   a. Co-chairs
      i. Co-chairs requested feedback on GSO Mixer (8/30)
• Not a lot of veggie options, no vegan or gluten free food
• Members were generally happy with the space and the location • Parking was an issue for some members • Dana raised the issue that the mixer was largely attended by leaders who are already actively involved in GSO
  a. Morgan suggested distancing GSO from the marketing to entice more people to come, i.e., marketing the event as a student mixer sponsored by GSO as opposed to GSO mixer • Multiple members provided positive feedback regarding holding events on Friday and in the evening
• Milagros recommended hosting events at a variety of locations, not just bars, so people uncomfortable in that type of environment feel comfortable • Kylie suggested diversifying the day of the week for events for students with longer commutes, as well as making sure interest groups don’t plan events that conflict with each other
  a. Xholina suggested creating a shared calendar so we can see everyone’s events
    i. Co-chairs will create a calendar through Group Me or Google ii. Milagros reminded GSO to pay attention to the UConn academic calendar also for planning events
    iii. Jessie suggested a white board calendar for the basement common area in HSSW to make events more accessible to students 1. Milagros asked who would maintain this calendar and mentioned the digital advertising space available in the common area ii. Krystina discussed that GSO priority posters will be in classrooms to help engage students iii. Social Media timeline in progress • Co-Chairs asked for volunteers to kick off student leader spotlights on social media to put a personal face on GSO
      a. Sarah and Gabrielle volunteered • Co-Chairs asked for feedback on social media content a. Kelly offered to take pictures for the spotlights
      b. Kylie suggested professor spotlights
        i. Dana suggested Ann Pratt and Ariva Walker for the first potential spotlight
      c. Kelly suggested spotlighting non-GSO MSW students as well to increase involvement
d. Kylie suggested “spirit days”-type campaigns where members wear GSO or UConn SSW attire and take pictures to share on social media to promote

e. Xholina suggested using the poll and question features in stories to engage people

iv. BH365

• Krystina sent a working list of potential speakers to the Dean for approval and offered to send the list to committee members for other suggestions

• BH365 leaders are in the process of having a Black-owned business approved to print t-shirts for GSO

• Lynne suggested inviting Black PhD students from across UConn to talk about their research

• Amanda mentioned getting in touch with other SSW GSOs at nearby universities for potential collaborations

v. Community service

• Mobile Action Network (MAN) is in the works to send texts to let people know about things in the community

vi. Constitution update

• Krystina shared that the GSO Constitution has not received enough votes from the student body to pass. The dates for voting this year are TBA, but co-Chairs will be asking members to announce to their classes so that enough votes can be secured

  a. Alberto suggested consolidating the document and providing a blurb with the most important information for students to easily read

    i. Co-chairs will follow up to see if this is allowed in the rules

b. Interest Groups

i. OBSWS
