"Puerto Rico: Facing Challenges & Shaping a Bright Future for America"

An informational and educational presentation by faculty, students, and alumni who participated in the Puerto Rico Travel Study trip in May/June 2017. Discussants will share knowledge, values and skills learned while discovering Puerto Rico's history, environment, and political power in facing challenges and promoting social change. The Travel Study participants will reflect on the implications for social work practice and future action to promote a bright future for Puerto Rico and America.

Presenters will explore the impact of the Puerto Rico Travel Study on their professional development. The program will be interactive with time for questions and answers presented by students and alumni.
